AGAIN

See you again
Hide in that quiet place again

Verse

You whisper my name
And I awake to a new day
Breathe in the life you gave
I rise to seek your face
And there you are
Patiently waiting me for me
To come rest in your arms

Chorus

Just to see you again, be with you again (see- you- a-gain- hide- in that quiet place
again)
Hide in that quiet place
Just me and you again, again yeah
To love you again (love- you- a-gain- show- you- you're the passion)
Let me show you that you're the passion of my heart
Again, again

Verse

When my world gets crazy
And I need a hideaway
Oh I hear your voice
Calling out my name
I get excited
Can't deny this love
Wanna run back to my first love
Again, again

Chorus

I know you're never far
I'll just call out your name
I wanna be where you are
So I can feel the joy you bring Your loves always the same
And I can't wait
To find myself in you again

Chorus (2x)

See you again
Hide in that quiet place again
